“Oh come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation! Let us come into His presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise! For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In His hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are His also. The sea is His, for He made it, and His hands formed the dry land. Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker! For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand.” Psalm 95:1-7a

Can you imagine it? Us gathering with the festal throng on the Last Day, coming into the presence of the Lord our King and seeing His face as we worship Him and sing praises to Him, as we rise from death to meet Him and enter the new creation He has long promised us? This is the time of the Church Year where we reflect on Christ's second coming. We reflect on what He will do on that great Day for us who have faith in Him. This time of the Church Year really points us to eternity. We see this first of all beginning with All Saints' Day as we hear about what heaven is like according to Scripture and the promises of the resurrection of the dead. This continues into the last few Sundays of the Church Year as we hear our Lord's words about His return in glory, even using parables to describe what His coming again will be like. The psalm above takes us into that reality as well. In fact, this is the appointed psalm for the Last Sunday of the Church Year. The reason is because this psalm acknowledges God as King above all gods. He is the One who righteously enacts His judgment on the world. He is the One who sends His messengers out to herald the good news of His redemption for us all. The Last Sunday of the Church Year is also known as Christ the King Sunday which is why it is fitting to include this psalm during the service for that day. The psalm too calls us, God's people, to gather together to bring our Lord thanks and praise for all He has done for us.

It is very interesting that the psalmist calls us to come before the King of kings and Lord of lords because sin cannot be in the presence of the holy and just God. We do not deserve to come to Him in worship and praise because we are sinners. All we have is our sin, and yet, our God is gracious. Through His Son Jesus Christ, the King, the One who is to come to judge the living and the dead, God the Father forgives you of your sins. Through His Son's blood He has made you righteous to come before Him. Our gathering together on Sunday morning is a taste of the gathering in eternity we will experience when Christ returns in all His glory. We come before our Lord Jesus Christ, not in fear, but in repentance over our sins trusting in His mercy to grant us forgiveness, and He does. Throughout the service we hear forgiveness for us from the absolution spoken by the pastor all the way to the Lord's Supper. So until Jesus returns, “Come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation! Let us come into His presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise!” Amen.
